Babylonian Literary Texts in the Schøyen Collection (CUSAS 10), No. 14

corrigendum – In the Akkadian version of No. 14 (The Scholars of Uruk) line 44, ū-ši-im-ma a-an-ni-a-am-ma uz-nam a-na a-li-ia il-ru-uk, the first word is to be parsed from šummum “to think” rather than from the rare II/1 stem of ši’amum. Its Sumerian counterpart mu.un.dīm arises from the lexical equation dīm.ma “thought” = šummu “think”, which is extant in Erimḫu IV 152 (dīm.ma = šum-mu, šu-um-mu) and Nābnītu IV 352 (dīm = šu-um-mu, šum-ma). The line should be translated “Ea deliberated and bestowed this very wisdom on my city.”
