

My Tricksy Spirit

My Tricksy Spirit is a group founded by composer Nick Gray. It fuses the shimmering sounds of Balinese gamelan instruments called gendér wayang with dub, electronic, ambient, trip-hop, and psychedelic rock.

The group is a collective, based around a core consisting of: Nick Gray (gendér wayang, violin, vocals), Charlie Cawood (guitars, bass, sitar, tsouras), and Rob Shipster (drums, electronics and production). The group has recently been joined by Roxanne Aisthorpe (vocals). The album also draws from a pool of guest musician friends.

Gendér wayang is a duo or quartet of metallophones used in Bali for shadow puppet plays and rituals. The paired tuning gives the sound a particular, shimmering quality and the instruments play in an interlocking style. Nick studied this music for many years in Bali and also runs a traditional gendér wayang group called Segara Madu.

The debut album My Tricksy Spirit was released on 1st September 2017 by Bad Elephant Music <http://www.badelephant.co.uk/> and can be found here: <http://mytricksyspirit.badelephant.co.uk/album/my-tricksy-spirit>

Track listing:

‘Always with you’
‘Free of stars’
‘Coming down again’
‘Winter story’
‘Time to go’
‘Circle of light’
‘Dub of stars’

Words and music by Nick Gray

Roxanne Aisthorpe: vocals on ‘Always with you’
Charlie Cawood: bass guitar, guitar, sitar, tsouras
Joe Chapman: production, drums and electronics on ‘Free of stars’ and ‘Dub of stars’
Bella Copleston: backing vocals on ‘Time to go’
Tomoya Forster: bass synth on ‘Circle of light’
Nick Gray: gendér wayang, vocals, violin
Anna Lau: vocals on ‘Winter story’
Sirishkumar Manji: tabla on ‘Always with you’
Kristian Marr: vocals on ‘Circle of light’
Polly Murdoch: backing vocals on ‘Always with you’
Rob Shipster: production, drums and electronics
Julian Vicary: keyboards on ‘Circle of light’

Produced by Rob Shipster

Mastered by Howie B at HB Recordings

The album is dedicated to Nick’s teacher, the late I Wayan Loceng of Sukawati, Bali, Indonesia.